

A Third Place to Connect with Asian Women Leaders

AWLF Online Summit

Vol.5

Thinking about the future of our planet and the journey ahead of ourselves.

We believe that the “love” and “strength” of 2 billion women across Asia can become the driving force that creates a ripple of kindness throughout the world.

On this special evening, you will encounter the real-life stories of leading Asian women who are shaping the world on the front lines along with heartfelt messages they wish to pass on to the next generation.

An evening of conversation an evening to expand your perspective and your heart.

In addition to talks by inspiring leaders, this is an interactive online event where participants share and connect.

“A single encounter can change a life.”

The words and moments you experience here may become the first step toward a new future for you.
